

Please Note:

The keys that were used by subcontractors during construction of your home will be automatically locked out once you have used the keys you received at closing. This is an important extra protection feature provided by your homebuilder for your safety and security.

Standard duty deadlocks and handle sets must be rotated by key through both locked and unlocked positions, to lock out builder's keys.

